

2023 Physician Call Coverage Burden & Compensation Survey Questions

1. Do you provide off-site call coverage services for a hospital or other healthcare facility? (i.e. for a hospital/ER call, not your own private patients) <yes, continue/no, end of survey>
2. Are you employed by the organization that operates the facility for which you provide off-site call coverage? <yes/no>
3. In what state do you primarily practice? <choices>
4. What is your primary specialty? <choices/other, please specify>
5. How many physicians practice within your group? (including yourself) <choices by range>
 - a. 1
 - b. 2-4
 - c. 5-9
 - d. 10-19
 - e. 20-49
 - f. 50+
6. For how many different facilities do you provide off-site call coverage services? <10 choices>
7. Which of the following best describes the service area of the primary facility for which you provide call coverage? <3 choices>
8. What is the trauma level of the primary facility for which you provide call coverage? <4 choices>
9. On average, how many days per month do you provide off-site call coverage? <open>
10. How many doctors are part of the call coverage rotation for your primary specialty at your primary facility? <open>
11. Which of the following best describes the required on-location, in-person response time when you provide off-site call coverage (in minutes unless otherwise specified)? <choices>
12. Which of the following best describes the average frequency of phone calls you receive while providing off-site call coverage per day? <options>
13. Which of the following best describes the average frequency of trips to the facility for in-person visits while you provide off-site call coverage per day? <options>
14. Which of the following best describes the average number of hours you spend on location at the facility per day when providing off-site call coverage? <options>
15. Do you receive compensation that has been designated specifically for providing off-site call coverage? <options>
16. What is your average daily rate (i.e., 24 hours) of compensation for providing off-site call coverage services? (please convert hourly arrangements to a daily rate, numerical responses only, enter "0" if you are not compensated for call coverage)
 - a. Weekdays <open>
 - b. Weekends and Holidays <open>
17. Some physicians are compensated for call coverage only after providing a certain number of uncompensated days of coverage per month. If applicable to you, which of the following best describes the number of days of uncompensated call coverage services you provide per month? <options>
18. Do you receive any other compensation, besides a daily/hourly rate or stipend, for professional services provided while on-call? <options>
19. What is your email address (optional)? We will share the results this summer with all participants who enter their email addresses. Email addresses will not be sold or used in any other way. <open>